"Barbara (Bobi) Postelnek is a versatile artist whose works range in style from realistic to impressionistic as well as serious to humorous. She received her BA in Behavioral Science from the University of Maryland in 1975 and has since studied art at the Art Students League, the Sculpture League, and the National Academy of Design School of Fine Art, all in New York City. Barbara's wealth of artistic experiences ranges from decorative surface design for private homes and businesses to creating life size figures, puppets, and other objects for television and print media. Her clients have included GTE and Saturday Night Live. A professional sculptor since 1988, Barbara has shown her work in numerous exhibitions, including the Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts Juried Show and the Salmagundi Club. She has received several awards, and art scholarships from the National Sculpture Society. Her work has been represented by galleries in New York, Maryland, Santa Fe, Palm Desert, and San Diego. Barbara has been teaching figurative study classes in San Diego since 2004 and is now teaching at the Athenaeum of La Jolla."
