

FRITZIE URQUHART

760-436-0898

fritzie4art@hotmail.com

www.fritzie.com

"I graduated from Ohio State University with a Bachelor in Fine Arts and San Diego State University with a Master of Arts degree. I have been a teacher and an artist in New York, California, New Zealand and Australia.

My paintings and sculptures have been exhibited at the William D. Cannon Gallery in Carlsbad, California, the Oceanside Museum of Art, the Escondido Arts Partnership, the Del Mar Art Center, the Emerald Plaza in San Diego and the Hyde Gallery at Grossmont College.

My work was exhibited in the international "Ashes to Art" juried exhibit in San Francisco in 2002, and my art was featured in an exhibit of twenty San Diego artists in Super Bowl XXXVI in San Diego, California.

Public art venues include Urban Trees 1, 2004, and Urban Trees 3, 2006, The Embarcadero, San Diego, California. "California Canoodle Tree", the Carlsbad Sculpture Park, Carlsbad, California. August, 2006. "The Maypole Tree", North Harbor Drive, San Diego, California. May, 2006 "Urban Evergreen", The Wolfstein Sculpture Garden, Scripps Memorial Hospital, La Jolla, California, February, 2005. "Al Dente" soft sculpture bench, The San Diego Benchmark Project, 2003. "

"Fritzie Urquhart is (an artist) who allows her work to speak for itself, and speak it does in a sweet, wry way."

Robert Pincus, art critic for the San Diego Union Tribune.