

VICTORIA JOHNSON

858-361-8345

bvici@aol.com

Victoria Johnson grew up in Montreal, Quebec. She has traveled extensively throughout Europe and North America. She is now living in California and makes her home in San Diego, California.

After several years in the business world Victoria has been able to exclusively dedicate the last ten years to pursue her passion for sculpture. Victoria has studied sculpture with Don Gale, Ross Stockwell, A. Wasil, Marty Davis, Vladimir Medinica, Mary Buckman and Phillippe Faraut. Her work has been shown in galleries in La Jolla and in the Fire Arts Gallery in San Diego and in the San Diego Sculptor's Guild Galley in Balboa Park.