

Luigi Luevano

Tenor, Producer and Director.

Luigi had a great role model in his parents who were both singers. At an early age, he found a great deal of inspiration listening to records of the famous tenor Enrico Caruso. Since 1964 he has become well known in Southern California for his musical productions both Classical and Contemporary, which include Italian Favorites, Broadway Show Tunes, Latin, Spanish, Mexican, French, Opera and Operetta, presented with elegance and humor. Mr. Luevano also performed for the Armed Forces in Vietnam.

The artist has performed in many prestigious places such as the Presidential Palace in the Philippines, the Lyceum Theater, in San Diego, and the California Center For the Arts Escondido, just to mention a few. He currently performs in San Diego, North County, Palm Springs, and Coachella Valley.
