

HAVING A BALL IN CARLSBAD

ROBERT BENSON For the North County Times

Art group raises funds

Sandra Chanis stands near her alabaster sculpture made of Alabaster, titled 'Offering,' during a fundraising masquerade ball Saturday night at the old Neiman's building, now the Ocean House in Carlsbad. The ball was staged by the Outdoor Art Foundation, a new organization affiliated with the Carlsbad Village Business Association that is working to bring 30 sculptures to downtown.